Session Is Closed members. The House adjourned for luncheon at 1:30 p. m. AFTERNOON SESSION. On the items of grants to agricultural societies, Mr. Fulton asked the government if they would not deem it advisable to devote expenditure to aiding one provincial exhibition in each year, instead of dividing the appropriation among a number of small shows, which only illustrated local effort. Mr. Hayward endorsed Mr. Fulton's remarks. He was in favor of encouraging district exhibitions, but would like to see an annual provincial exhibition which would fittingly represent the agricultural, live stock and industrial resources of the province. Hon. Mr. Prentice said the suggestion was a good one, and was receiving his careful consideration. He hoped by next year to be able to formulate some scheme which would meet the views of all concerned. Mr. Fulton pointed out the necessity of the government issuing definite information in the way of mans and de-

Hon. Mr. Eberts said the government would be pleased to make arrangements to secure such a desirable lot of settlers and if Mr. Hayward would favor the government with a copy of the letter they would forward it to Hon. J. II. Turner, agent-general, with instructions to take all necessary steps to promote the scheme.

Mr. Speaker decided, with regard to dr. Martin's bill to amend the Mineral tet, that the third reading could not e discharged.

COMMITTEE OF SUPPLY. The House resumed the voting of pply and proceeded with the approptions for public works, roads, streets supply and processes and bridges.

Mr. McBride complained of the small vote for Dewdney, which he claimed was not sufficient to maintain the roads and trails. He considered $12,000 should be voted instead of $6,000.

Mr. E. C. Smith considered $14,500 for Southeast Kootenay far too small, and urged that the vote be doubled.

Hon. Mr. Wells explained that the government proposed this year to spend the appropriations on repairs and maintenance, for which the vote was amply sufficient, being $0,000 more than was voted last year for the same service.

Mr. McBride and Mr. Green also protested strongly against the smallness of the vote.

Ottawa, June 20.—Information has been received by the government that government proposed this year to spend the appropriations on repairs and maintenance, for which the vote was amply soufficient, being $0,000 more than was voted last year for the same service.

Mr. McBride and Mr. Green also protested strongly against the smallness of the vote.

Hon. Mr. Wells said he had received several letters from residents of the district complimenting the government on the good work done on the r ads, trails and bridges.

Mr. Taylor objected to the vote for Reveistoke Ridding, $14,500, stating that it was wholly inadequate.

Mr. Cartis made the same objection to the appropriation for Rossland, $14,500.

Mr. McBride thought the vote for the Cariboo road, $26,000, was not sufficient to keep the road in proper repair.

On the item, $50,000 contingencies for works and buildings, roads, streets, bridges, wharves and surveys, Mr. McBride took occasion to attack the government on the $50,000 aid to Foint Ellice bridge, reiterating the charge that the money was given as a sop to the electors of Victoria to influence their votes in the by-election. He made a general attack on the government's policy, and insinuated that the $50,000 aid to Foint Ellice bridge, reiterating the charge that the money was given as a sop to the electors of Victoria to influence their votes in the by-election. Hon. Mr. Wells explained that the government were constantly in receipt of applications and propositions for public works in various parts of the province and it was absolutely necessary to have a fund available to pay expenses of investigation, and in urgent cases to meet the cost of necessary work.

agent of the government. He hoped mo more public money would be paid to this gentleman.

On the item, $6,000 for advertising, Mr. Melbride asked if the government had cancelled the contract for advertising with the Colonist, on account of an article which appeared recently in that paper?

Hon. Mr. Prentice replied in the negative.

Mr. Martin said many of the advertisements published in the newspapers were utterly valueless.

Hon. Mr. Prentice said many of the advertisements were published by the newspapers for the information of their readers, and were not paid for.

Mr. McPhillips made a virulent attack on the Colonist, declaring that its reports of the debates were deliberately gardled and the utterances of the opposition perverted and twisted to meet the views of the policy of the paper. He was particularly severe on the "Obstruction" supplement, which he declared was a tissue of falsehoods and misrepresentation, and a gross outrage upon the privileges of the House.

Mr. McPhillips worked himself up to a condition of concentrated indignation, in which his robust baritone reverberated through the Chamber like Heaven's artillery among the mountain peaks.

Mr. Hawthoruthwaite defended the Colonist, the said the paper had given as fair a report as could be expected of a very trying and extraordinary session. Mistakes were made, but they were unavoidable in any newspaper report. It was unfortunate, perhaps, that the custom of the newspaper was to report in extenso only those portions of the debate which favored the side of politics.

Mr. Fulton pointed out the necessity of the government issuing definite information in the way of maps and descriptions of all the lands in the province available for settlement.

Hon. Mr. Wells said the government were preparing just such information for the use of intending settlers.

Report That Money Is Raised to . Carry Out Terminal Ferry

Gold From North to Be Treated at Vancouver Assay Office.

Funeral of Late James Martin -False Creek Foreshore Rights.

Vancouver, June 20.—A report traced to a semi-official source, is current in Vancouver, that the remaining portion to a semi-official source, is current in Vancouver, that the remaining portion of the terminal ferry scheme has been financed by United States capital. The whole scheme was originally divided into four sections. The first undertaking was to provide the railway from Sidney to Victoria; the next to establish a ferry from Ladners to Sidney; the third to connect with the Great Northern at Westminster by rail to Ladners, the ferry station, and the fourth to connect Westminster and Chilliwack by rail. It is understood that the funds have been arranged for the early construction of all these sections of the system. It is also definitely stated that beyond the 20 year contract with the Great Northern for the exchange of freight, that that corporation has nothing whatever to do with the control or conduct of the projected lines.

Work at Mount Sicker Is Progressing

Well.

Nanaimo, June 20.—(Special)—The aerial tramway for the Tyee company from Mount Sicker to the E. & N. railway is progressing satisfactorily. Henry O'Connell, of this city, who has charge of the work, expects that in about two months the tramway will be ready for use. At present Mr. O'Connell has a gang of about 16 men at work. They are laying foundations for pillars, the highest of which will be about 50 feet. Capt. Johuston, manager of the Pacific Fish & Cold Storage company, left here today on the fishing schooner New England. He will join the Nellie G. Thurston near the north end of Vancouver Island. The report brought down by the New England is to the effect that the Thurston is meeting with better success near Cape Scott than she did for some time previous, and will stay for a time to complete her cargo. While on the sand bar the Thurston's rudder was slightly injured, but can be repaired without putting into port.

NAVY ESTIMATES

NAVY ESTIMATES.

Lord Charles Beresford Criticises Deficiencies of the Navy.

cles of the Navy.

London, June 20.—During the course of the discussion on the navy estimates in the House of Commons today, Rear-Admiral Lord Beresford, Conservative, scattlingly criticized the deficiency of the navy. He declared the whole Admirally was rotten, and this led to the extravagance and the general want of efficiency of the navy, on which depended the existence of the Empire. This was the judgment of all the commissions of enquiry, and had been proven to be a fact. Every increase in the number of ships and every improvement had been the result of outside agitation. As the result of such agitation the British Mediterraneum fleet was now a fourth stronger than it was a year ago.

It was remarkable, Lord Beresford added, that both array and navy officers were to get things righted. Great Britain less only 20,000 naval reserves Instead of the partments were thousands of men short.

As to armament, both the United States and France possessed superior guns, Blunders would continue until a separate business board was appointed at the Admiralty and was held responsible for the efficiency of the fleet. Treasury control was fatal to efficiency.

As an instance, the speaker pointed out the case of Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

the fleet. Treasury control was fatal to efficiency.

As an instance, the speaker pointed out the case of Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Liberal, who, when he was chancellor of the exchequer, put his pen through the aumunition supplies after the guns had. The Secretary of the Admiralty, Mr. Arnold-Foster, in a general reply to the criticisms of the navy, denied that the Admiralty had been influenced by Lord Beresford's threats to resign. The navy, he added, has been steadily improving but there was still room for the reinforcement and intellectual equipment of the system which directs or ought to direct, the forces of the Empire.

This will remind you that the pain of strains, bruises and sprains, common incidents of active out-door life is drawn from aching bodies by Perry Davis' Painkiller, as a magnet draws bits of iron from sand. ASCOT RACES.

the Ascot races to be in no way comparable with that of the earlier days of the meeting.

The Ascot high weight stakes a handicap of 300 sovereigns for three years olds and upwards, one mile and a quarter, was won by Victoria Don.

The Duke of Portland's William The Third, M. Cannon, won the Alexandra plate of 500 sovereigns, added to a sweep-stakes of 25 sovereigns each, for four year olds, about three miles. Osbosh Maher, was second, and Ameer Picon, Ilighy, third. Six horses ran.

The principal race of the day, the Wekingham stakes handicap, for three year olds and upwards, six furlongs, was won by an outsider, His Lordship. Papdale was second and Pinder third. Twenty-five horses started.

The starting gate refused to act in the contest for the Wokingham Stakes, and only about half the starters got properly away and completed the course. There was some discussion as to whether the race ought not to be run again, but the stewards decided that this was not necessary. COAL FAMINE.

What Would Happen in Three Months in States.

Indianapolls, June 20.—It is estimated by W. B. Wilson, secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, that the supply of bituminous and anthractic coal above ground would be exhausted in less than three months if there should be a general suspension of work in the mines. According to this estimate if the national convention of mine workers in Indianapolis, July 17th, should vote for a general suspension of work in support of the anthractic strikers, the vast industrial machinery of the country would be handleapped. Thousands of factories would have to suspend work.

Believes in Tariff Concessions But Not Free Trade.

London, June 20.—In an interview today on the forthcoming colonial conference, Edmund Barton, Premier of Australia, said he considered that an Imperial customs union was not within the bounds of practical polities, though it might be possible nany years hence. Imperial free trade now would deprive the young communities of their main source of revenue, namely, the customs, and render it impossible to carry on their internal government successfully. Mutual tariff concessions within the Empire might be arranged on a more practical basis, and he hopied to see the difficulties in the way of such concessions removed.

Brandon, Man., June 20.—This morning at 8.08 Walter Gordon explated on the gallows the murder of Charles Daw and Jacob Smith. The execution was carried out without a hitch and life was pronounced extinct 13 minutes after Radeliffe sprung the trap. The last act in the drama was not marked by any sensational includent. The doomed man walked to the scaffold, accompanied by also spiritual adviser and paid for four Last such that select the last converse with Governor Acton, of the jall, and with his spiritual adviser. Previous to leaving his cell to mount the gallows stairs the prisoner shook hands with Radeliffe. It was while Rev. Mr. Henry was rectting the Lord's Prayer and when he had reached the words: "And forgive us our trespasses" that Radeliffe the bolt and Gordon's body went crashing through the trap. Great care had been taken that only those having some direct interest in the execution, such as elergymen, newspapermen and physicians should be present to witness it. Large crowds had gathered early on the hills outside the prison, but they saw little of the proceedings.

Amur Brings Gold and Many Passengers
From the North.

Steamer Amur returned from Skagway yesterday morning after a pleasant trip, and of her 40 passengers, she landed eight here, the remainder having debarked at Vancouver to entrain there for other points. Included among the passengers were a number of arrivals from Dawson, who brought considerable gold with them. It was estimated that there was about $200,000 in gold on the steamer. Much of this was held by a party of French-Canadians, who kept guard over their pokes, as did the miners of the first outward rush of 98, hardly any entrusting their golden store to the care of the purser.

Steamer Queen City was full up when she sailed for Cape Scott and way ports at an early hour this morning. She had as many passengers as accommodation could be found for, and as full a cargo of general freight as she had space for, the luded in the cargo, which was mostly general freight—consignments of supplies for the various landings between Victoria and the extreme end of the Island—were large consignments of lumber for San Juan and Bundiel creek, two horses and cattle for San Juan, and hefty shipments of supplies for Quatsino. The passengers included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, for Alberni; G. McTavish and Fr. A. Owens, for Quatsino; F. V. Hobbs, for San Juan; Mrs. Dergwell, for Clayoquot, and Mr. Clark and a party of miners bound to the Yreka mines at Quatsino.

MARINE NOTES.

Steamer Oceano, which is completing a cargo of oats for South Africa at Portland, will leave there in a few days for Comox to load lumber coal for the first part of her 13,200 mile voyage to the Cape. She will load sufficient coal for chomox to load bunker coal for the that port she will proceed via the Straits of Magellan to Montevideo, and thence across to Capetown, 3,600 miles from the Uruguayan port.

Steamer Boscowitz is due from Naas and way ports, and the steamer Tees will be due tomorrow from the same ports.

WATER RATES.

This idea of raising municipal revenue out of water rates is wrong. It is an improper and inequitable means of raising revenue. It effects no good purpose in the economy of water at the seasons of the year when it is advisable to economize, because if a man is com pelled to pay more for his water, he will naturally consider himself so much the more entitled to a lavish use of it. We also object to the meter system for reasons we have pointed out before, and which appear to us to be valid, particuas to prevent the wanton waste of water and to remedy the inequalities of the present system of rating. At the present time many are paying a high water rate, and actually consuming less water than those who are paying a lower rate This does not appear to be just. Suppose the city were to instal meters with a fixed minimum charge for a maximum amount of water, would not waste be prevented without necessary consump tion being in any way interfered with For instance, if the lowest monthly wat mum charge, and the average amount of water used in houses of this rating allowed as the maximum number of gallons which could be used for this amount of money, there would be no restriction in the necessary use of water, but there householder's meter registered the use of a larger number of gallons than were permitted for the minimum rate, let him pay for his extra consumption at the rate of twenty cents per thousand gallons, or whatever rate might be fixed. If it registered less, he would still pay the minimum rate as at present. It prevent waste. Leaky taps would soon be attended to, and the habit of throwbe attended to, and the habit of throwing the nozzle of a hose down on the ground, and permitting it to run until a pool is formed round it, would soon be broken. There may be objections to such a system, there may be insuperable difficulties in the way of its practical adoption. We do not profess expert knowledge on the subject of water consumption. But if such a system were in effect it would afford a mechanical check upon the wanton waste of water, relieving those who are willing to pay for water, and who do pay for it, from the water, and who do pay for it, from the disability of not being able to secure it. Among the sufferers at the present time is the Colonist Printing & Publishing the composing room is dry every evening just now, at a time when water is very much needed, namely from seven to ten at night. This is not as it should be in a city where the water supply should be ample and should also be properly regulated. Some remedy is required, either more water or the prevention of waste. To raise the rates will neither provide more water nor prevent the waste of what there is.

The Money Market Review publishes an article which brings into clear relief a problem which at the present time is vitally interesting to Canada. We make no apology for giving the following ex-

THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

There is no doubt but that the by-law providing for the acceptance of the Carnegie Library building will be passed, provided that ratepayers who favor it take the trouble to vote. But we extreat the people of Victoria to remember that there are always those who will vote against any civic improvement from a short-sighted idea of their own interest, and that if the by-law providing $15,000 for the purchase of a site should be defeated, and the incarn agreement with it, that the plaw providing $15,000 for the purchase of a site should be defeated, and the prosent day but few site opposite the post office. We favor a library building. A building at this point instead of an unsightly mass of rocks, will very properly round off the appearance of the new breakwater when completed. The site is perhaps not executed as some which might be purchased, but it it central enough. The business of all takes them to the post office, and on that ground no objection could be raised to the site in question, which would not apply equally to the location of the post office. A library built there would not merely be an ornament to be eity, but it would itself have an open prospect to the bay, providing ample, the for the propose of the situation. A really artistic building plated upon this site would add to the situation. A really artistic building plated upon this site would and to the already conspicuous beauty, so far as shuldings go, of this part of the town, the first which strikes the visitor's eye. When the James Bay causeway is completed, and the fine sweep of the retaining wall now being built has come into full relief, when the flats have been in remarkably clear appreciation of its approached from the Canadianing wall now being built has come into first which strikes the visitor's eye. When the James Bay causeway is completed, and the fine sweep of the retaining wa a remarkably clear appreciation of its nature as well as a very apt illustration of the effects of the natural, as opposed to the artificial, exchange of raw material. With reference to her supplies of raw cotton, Great Britain is largely dependent upon the United States, and the United States has not been slow to take advantage of that fact. A condition of affairs has resulted which, if it does not jeopardize, certainly handicaps the industry of cotton manufacture in Great Britain. The United States has long been working to remove this manufacture to its own territory, and, by virtue of its control of the raw material it will eventually succeed, unless Great Britain is able to find and control other sources of supply. The converse of the problem applies to Canada, not in reference to cotton, but in reference to lum-ber and iron. The United States is daily becoming more dependent upon our forests and deposits of iron for the prosecution of its industries dependent upon these materials. Doubtless there is much wood and iron still left in the larly in a city so dependent for its at- United States, but the Canadian supplies traction upon the perennial greenery of can be more cheaply extracted and more its lawns and gardens. But the meter system might be applied in such a way portant seats of industry. We have all along maintained that through the control enjoyed by this province over inexhaustible supplies of raw material for industries dependent upon wood and iron, (and what industries are not so dependent?) British Columbia controls the situation so far as the growth of industry and commerce upon the Pacific Ocean is concerned, and we are glad to have such an anthority as the Money

Market Review, in a carefully reasoned and convincing argument, upon our side.

Goes to the Home.-William Keeler who has been cared for at the CRY 16-lice station for several months, having refused to be shipped on one of the deep water craft leaving Victoria, arrange-ments have been made to place him in the Home for the Aged and Infirm. An effort will be made to keep him there this time, and he has promised to be-have himself.

Further Adjournments.—After hearing the evidence for the prosecution in the case in which George, a West Coast Indian, is charged with assaulting Charley, a Nitinat, the police magistrate yesterday adjourned the case until today, when the defence will be heard. Charley is not as badly injured as was at first thought. The unstamped tobacco cases were adjourned until Tuesday next.

Victoria Creamery.—At the annual meeting of the Victoria Creamery association, the annual report showed that during the year $18,000 was distributed among the patrons, leaving a balance out of which a five per cent. dividend was declared. The election of officers resulted in Mr. George Sangster being chosen president and Mr. Snelling sectorary. Mr. Carmichael, the retiring president, was presented with a bonus as a token of appreciation of his services.

Library By-laws.—The citizens of Victoria will decide on Monday if the city is to have an up-to-date library or not. The two library by-laws, one providing for the acceptance of the Carnegic offer and the other authorizing the borrowing of $15.000 for purchasing a site, will be placed before the people at 8 a.m., and voting will continue until 4 p.m. Mr. W. Croft, for the mining committee, asked more time for the making of their report on the iron ore bounty question, as they had not yet secured all the information necessary for an intelligent handling of the matter. This was granted. C. H. Lugrin, in a brief speech, referred to the lack of definite details about the reconvence of event he reads. referred to the lack of definite details about the resources of even the southern part of the Island, and hoped that some method could be devised for collecting religible data concerning this rich country and for publishing and disseminating such information far and wide. In this connection Mr. Shalleross pointed out that the Dominion government was about to send a geological survey party down the Const, but that this season's work would only be preliminary, three or four years being needed to complete their task.

J. J. Shalleross then brought up the question of the C. P. N. service on the West Coast of the Island. Their subsidy had been doubled by the Dominion government, and he understood that an ore trade from Quatsine Sound was appening in the varieties become when a year, which would not go far on such a run as that down the West Coast.

Asked as to the steamer for the route, Mr. Vincent stated that the Queen City was handling all the traffic offered, and was a very staunch, seaworthy bont. The Maude had stood the route for a long time, and her successor was certainly a much better vessel all around. To this Mr. Earle added that it never paid the C. P. N. company in the old days, and anyone going down would see how small the settlements were to draw traffic from. Last time he went down they had been 48 hours in the fog going up to Alberni with two tons and a half of freight for that point.

Asked about the Skagway run, Mr. Vincent said that the old subsidy had been $2,800 a year, with about $1,500 added through the mail contract for the British Columbia coast. Instead of these the new vote gave them $12,500 a year.

Trustee Matson Seeks Power

James Walker Is Appointed Janitor of New High School Building.

A special meeting the School Trustees was held at the City hall last evening, there being present, in addition to the chairman and the secretary, Trustees to the continuance of these training centres.

Owing to an outbreak of measles among the pupils of the Hillside school, it was decided to close the school forthwith. In this connection Trustee Matson wished to know why the health officer had not closed the school in the morning instead of keeping it open until the noon hour. It was a very important matter, and in another case the trustees, had been accused of being negligent. In the case of an epidemic, the trustees should have the power of closing a school immediately.

Trustee Matson thought that it would be a good idea to carry this out, a list of the various staples required by the Board being supplied all dealers.

Superintendent Eaton pointed out that the resolution was silent as to who was to do the purchasing, which all would admit was a most important point, as articles even at the same price varied exceedingly in qualities, etc. To secure the best results it was necessary that some one should make a special study, of the adaptability and qualities of the different articles. As at present conducted, the department made its purchases much more economically now than two years ago. It was necessary to have a purchasing agent, and as it was no part of the speaker's duties to act as such, or as secretary of the Board, he would request that the Board allow him in future to contine himself to his proper work.

Trustee Drury said that there was not the slightest intention to reflect on the past methods of conducting business, but whatever purchases are made should be through the Board.

Trustee Drury's motion was carried, and the meeting then adjourned.

"It may be that some of us old Australians have been unable to see any of the wonderful advantages that it is pretended by settlers that the new form of Government has brought the country, but certain it is, that it has proved almost too expensive an experiment."

Such was the opinion offered to a Star representative by Mr. Malcolm McLean, of Melbourne, Australia. Mr. McLean, or Melbourne, Australia, Mr. Agreat many were anxious for a change." A great many were anxious for a change. "A great many were anxious for a change and the younger people especially were confident that it would ease expect the country, they created the country, would be placed in order to support a new form of Government. While we will admit, frankly, that in some ways, the Government has done much good, it has been at too great a cost to the taxpayer.

Disease attacks the little ones through the digestive organs. Baby's Own Tablets are the best thing in the world for all stomach and bowel troubles of children. They act quickly and gently, and always cure indigestion, colic, constipation and diarrhea. They are also a great help to teething children.

Mrs. C. W. Tefft, Markham, Ont., says:—"Up to the time my baby was a month old, he was a fine, healthy baby. Then indigestion developed and he grew thin and looked pinched. His tongue was coated, and his breath offensive. He vomited curdled milk and was also troubled with constipation. After taking his food he would always cry with pain, and although he always appeared hungry his food did him absolutely no good. He was very restless and sleepless and kept me up day and night. We tried several medicines but nothing did any good until we got Baby's Own Tablets. After giving him these he began to improve almost immediately. His breath became sweet, his tongue clean; the vomiting ceased: his bowels got regular, and he began to gain weight and is now quite healthy and rosy. Baby's Own Tablets wrought this beneficial change, and I would not now be without them in the house."

Guaranteed to contain no opiate or harmful drug, Crushed to a powder they can be given to the smallest, feeblest child, with a certainty of good results. Sold by all druggists or sent post paid at 25 cents a box by writing left the 'bus, and a minute inter the old and neame over and sat down beside me and queried:

'Ever stop at my place in the country?'

'No I never did!'

'Ilow did. Now who I was?'

'Ith who know who you are.'

'Ith you winked at me!' he persisted.

'Yes, I know but that was to warn you against the young man beside you. I think he was a pickpocket.

'You don't say so?' He was probably after my watch. You winked to—to—'swhat Is it?'

'The cuss got my watch as sure's you're born. Yes, sir—got my watch and chain. By Jove, but that beats all creation!'

'That's too bad. I winked at you to back that you twigged and you winked back the wout the was all the old chap. Altered the sure winted is thought you was askin' me to take a drink when we got off, and when I winked a like the wout winded to the wout winked it thought you was askin' me to take a drink when we got off, and when I winked a lack it meant that I'd take some with the greatest pleasure. Here, you conductor, lemme off this 'bus and I'll go back and see if I can't find that thief.'

'I hope you may,' I said, as he got off. But when he had gone my watch' was gone too.—London Tit Bits. Saturday: ctoria and Vicinity: Moderate or fresh winds, chiefly cloudy and warm, with showers tonight or Sunday. wer Mainland: Light or moderate winds,

On the item of $20,000, Provincial Board of Health, including salaries, Hon. Mr. Eberts explained that the province had been forced to expend between $5,000 and $9,000 for salaries of preventive officers along the border during the threatened invasion of small-pox from the United States and the East. These officers had been appointed in an emergency, but should have been appointed and paid by the Dominion government. It was hoped that the authorities at Ottawa would recognize the claim of the province to be reimbursed for the expenditure thus forced upon it. He was pleased to say that the provincial officers had succeeded in stamping out the disease at such a small outlay; Ontario had expended on the $750,000 for Ite same purpose.

such a small outlay, Ontario had expended some $750,000 for the same purpose.

On the vote of $1,500 for School of Mines at Rossland, Mr. Hawthornth waite urged that a school of coal mining be established.

Hon, Col. Prior replied that the subject was under consideration.

The item of $40,000 for the Eburne bridges was opposed by Mr. Oliver on the ground that the original estimates called for only $25,000.

Hon, Mr. Wells explained that in the first place it was expected that most of the old piers would be utilized, but it was found on uncovering them that they were so defective that a much greater amount of work was necessary.

Mr. Oliver insisted that the extra cost was due to the negligence or incompetence of the public works engineer.

Mr. Kidd was not prepared to say that the government were in the wrong in the matter. He gave a history of the Eburne bridges, and of the negotiations between the government and the numicipality of Richmond, which resulted in the present contract. The Richmond council did not think it would be necessary to replace the whole structures, but it was found on examination that the timbers were rotten and would have to be replaced. At the same vime he did not know why the bridges should cost $65,000, of which the government was providing $40,000. He shought the work might have been let to better advantage.

Mr. McBride understood that McLean Bros. were doing the work on what was known as a "forced contract," which gave an opportunity for the making of extras. The work should be let by tender.

Hon, Mr. Wells said tenders were called for in the first place and McLean Bros. which called for immentation for in the first place and McLean Bros. which called for immentation for in the first place and McLean Bros. bid was the lowest. Then when it was found necessary to do extra work was found necessary to do extra work the succession of the college of the structures of the college of the succession of the college of the structure, but it was found to think it would be necessary to de extr by tender. The work should be let Hon. Mr. Wells said tenders were called for in the first place and McLean Bros', bid was the lowest. Then when it was found necessary to do extra work it was thought fair that it should be given to McLean Bros. It would have been impracticable to have divided the work between two firms. McLean Bros. were doing the work on government estimates and were to receive 10 per cent. commission.

Mr. Munro did not approve of work

Mr. Munro did not approve of work being let in an irregular way. It created suspicion and dissatisfaction, and should be avoided in the future. He instanced the case of certain dyking work in his constituency in which

The vote for valuing and classifying dyking lands, $1,500, also came in for a good deal of opposition criticism. Mr. Oliver especially scoring the government for their policy with regard to dyking. NIGHT SITTING.

NIGHT SITTING.

Mr. McPhillips asked the government the following questions:

1. Is it a fact that the government has in contemplation the retirement or superannuation of Sheriff McMillan?

2. Is it a fact that it is in contemplation to appoint Mr. Frank G. Richards to the vacancy when created?

3. Has any application been made for the position by Mr. Frank G. Richards, or by any one on his behalf?

of her representative at the Coronation of His Majesty, the King.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite congratulated the government on their promptitude in providing $3,000 for a commission to enquire into the cause of accidents in coal mines.

Mr. MoPhillips did not consider the amount provided as a superannuation for Sheriff McMillan, $50 per month, was too small. He paid a very high tribute to Mr. McMillan's ability, and the valuable services which he had rendered the DECVINCE.

Mr. Oliver opposed the item. He did not believe in superannuating public or-

Mr. Oliver opposed the item. He did not believe in superannuating public orficers.

Hon. Col. Prior fully endorsed Mr. McPhillips remarks as to Sheriff McMillan's value as an official, and his sterling worth as a citizen.

Hon. Mr. Eberts said Mr. McMillan had been in the service of the government for over 20 years, and had never been in receipt of more than $700 to $1,000 a year, Mr. McMillan was an old and tried officer, and it was only right that the government should provide for him in his declining years.

Mr. Rogers complained that Mr. Cowan's superannuation allowance of $20 a month was far too small, and he hoped the government would pat to increase it.

Mr. E. C. Smith would like to see the principle extended to all civil servants, or to see it abolished.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite hoped the government would put the civil service on a firm, fair basis, as that of Great Britain. He hoped to see the principle of old age pensions extended to all classes of workers.

age pensions extended to all classes of workers.

The item passed.

Mr. Helmcken endorsed everything which had been said in praise of Sheriff McMillan, and suggested that Mr. Siddall, his deputy, would make an excelent successor to the office.

The rest of the items were passed, and the committee rose and reported. The items were then concurred in, and the supply bill was passed.

Hon, Col. Prior moved the following resolution, which was carried with cheers:

Whereas Canada, the greatest of the self-governing dependencies of the Empire, whose extensive seaboards on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans render naval protection of vital importance to her very existence, has from the very beginning of her history had the benefit of such protection afforded by the Royal navy without contributing anything to the cost of maintenance thereof:

And whereas the further continuance of such a state of affairs is not only undignified, but it is incompatible with the present standing of our country as a prosperous nation:

And whereas British Columbia, the largest of the provinces of Canada, embraces within its boundaries the whole of Canadian territory bordering on the Pacific Ocean, and is therefore more concerned in the naval supremacy of the Empire than any other province of confederation:

Be it therefore resolved, that the time

oned:
And be it further resolved, that the patribution to be made by Canada toards the attainment of the above obset should primarily take the form of or by any one on his behalf?

Hon. Col. Prior replied to the first question, that a sum had been placed in the supplementary estimates for the purpose referred to.

Mr. Kidd asked the government the following question:

On what date was the order of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Compel passed apportioning and defining the sections of the route of the Columbia & Western railway from Trail to Penticton?

Hon. Mr. Wells replied the 20th June, 1897.

The supplementary estimates were GOD SAVE THE KING

GOD SAVE THE KING. GOD SAVE THE KING.
This cleared the order paper and the members, relieved from the strain of a long and wearisome session, joined in singing the National Anthem supplemented with three hearty cheers for His Majesty.

NOTES.

Several of the members left by this morning's Charmer for the Mainland.

In the report on the discussion of the vote of $30,000 to aid construction of Point Ellice bridge, Hon. Col. Prior's remarks were inadvertently omitted. Col. Prior strongly supported the vote, which he said the government deemed no more than justice to the City of Victoria.

Before the city limits were extended to take in the Point Ellice bridge, it was handed over to the city by the provincial government, and prior to that transfer the provincial government had arranged with the Tramway company for them to use the bridge. The bridge, he said, was used by the Imperial troops at Esquimalt, and was the only road into the city for a large population living on the northwest of the city.

Sound Next Week.

A meeting of the printing, advertising and transportation committee in connection with the coronation celebration, was held last evening at 8 o'clo.k, at the City hall, and owing to the chairman's inability to attend, those present adjourned to the Brunswick to do business. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs, T. W. Walker, J. Wilby, C. H. Lugrin and J. C. Darling, Mr. Sexton was in the chair.

Mr. Sexton, who is also the secretary of the societies' re-union, has been in Seattle and Tacoma during the past few days, and has done good work over there. He reported that advertisements had been placed with the Seattle P.-I. and Times, and also that good posters

SO NERVOUS COULD BOT REST

Had Splitting Headaches and System Was Weak and Rundown.

DR. CHASE'S

NERVE FOOD

Study these symptoms. They are for your guidance. You may not have them all, but if you have any of them your nervous system is not up to the mark, and a little extra expenditure of nerve force may bring the dreadful downfall.

Intolerance of motion, noise and light; twitching of the muscles of the face and eyelids; fatiguing sleep, sudden startings and jerkings of the limbs; dizziness and flashes of light before the eyes; irritability and restlessness in every part of the body; headache, indigestion, feelings of weariness and depression, and loss of interest in the affairs of life.

So long as the daily expenditure of nerve force is greater than the daily income, physical bankruptcy is certain to result sooner or later. Nerve force must be increased, and this can best be accomplished by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, because it contains in concentrated form the very elements of nature which go directly to form nervous energy.

Mrs. G. Thompson, 240 Muaroc street, Toronto, Ont., states: "I was very much run down in health, and whenever 1 exerted myself more than usual I had severe attacks of splitting headache, and was very nervous, so much so that I could not rest well at nights. After using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I found that my nerves were steadied; I could rest and sleep better than I have for a long time, and was entirely free of headaches. I can speak very highly of this preparation for nervous trouble."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmauson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
